

Review of: "The Political Ecologies of the Tonle Sap: Global, Regional and National Framework for Conservation and Development"

Pujarini Samal¹

¹ Annamalai University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Comments to the Author:

The manuscript entitled 'The Political Ecologies of the Tonle Sap: Global, Regional and National Framework for Conservation and Development' presents an interesting and a detailed records of the Tonle Sap Lake in terms of political ecology. As the manuscript has not been provided with line number, so the comments are attached with the PDF file of the MS (Open the PDF file with Adobe reader). Kindly see.

Comments:

1. Word Clarity: Define MRB and MRC upon first mention, using their full forms with acronyms in brackets. Subsequently, you may employ the acronyms alone without reiterating their meanings. Nevertheless, it is advisable to elucidate the meanings of these terms at the outset of the manuscript, preceding their initial abbreviations, instead of addressing them later in the document.
2. Necessity of the study is defined really well, but the gap of the study should be clear and loud.
3. make it as superscript, throughout the MS.
4. check the citation.
5. This can be moved to section 2 as defines the objective of the study.