

Review of: "Can Twitter be used to improve learning outcomes in undergraduate medical education? A pilot study"

Shih-Chuan Lin¹

¹ Tamkang University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Comments:

What is the literature gap? How does this study fill out the gap? The authors should highlight where the literature gap in the literature review section. In addition, the authors should highlight the importance/contribution of their study in the introduction section.

There are still some typos and grammar problems. A proofreading may help readers to understand the topic.