- In the abstract, more specific and concise information about the article is needed: the purpose and goals of the research, the methodology used, and the results of the research.
- In the introductory part, it is necessary to provide more detailed information regarding the empirical evidence used in this research.
- The literature review needs to be deepened with relevant modern research. I suggest citing the following authors: 1) E. Farquharson, C. Torres de Mästle, E.R. Yescombe, How to Engage with the Private Sector in Public-Private Partnerships in Emerging Markets, 2011; 2) K. Verhoest, O.H. Petersen, W. Scherrer, R.M. - It is necessary to more clearly define the sample, data collection instruments, and research methods.
- It is necessary that the results of the research are more closely related to the topic of the research.
- In the discussion of the research, it is necessary to process the set goals more clearly through the discussion.
