

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Stanford V Regimen

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Stanford V Regimen. NCI Thesaurus. Code C63369.

A chemotherapy regimen consisting of mechlorethamine, doxorubicin hydrochloride, vinblastine, vincristine, bleomycin, etoposide and prednisone, administered on a compressed schedule and used in the treatment of Hodgkin lymphoma; it may be followed by consolidative radiation therapy.