The paper is well written and will contribute to the body of knowledge, the paper can be published with minor corrections in the methodology: Try to write in past tense, more on the sample 1. size: The sample size was 650 students to cater for attrition as missing data. 2. Inclusion criteria. Students who were apparently healthy Black, indigenous Nigerians resident locally for a minimum of 2 years. (Change the writing style). Overall the paper is well written and constructive in relation to Introduction, Results and Discussion section.
