

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Permanent neonatal diabetes mellitus

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Permanent neonatal diabetes mellitus. ORPHA:99885

Permanent neonatal diabetes mellitus (PNDM) is a monogenic form of neonatal diabetes (NDM, see this term) characterized by persistent hyperglycemia within the first 12 months of life in general, requiring continuous insulin treatment.