

Review of: "Assessing Sex Education Awareness Among Higher Secondary School Students in India"

Seyil Najimudinova¹

¹ Kyrgyz Turkish Manas University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I commend the author on their efforts. Nevertheless, it is essential to adhere to fundamental principles when writing a paper. The absence of a well-established theoretical framework, an unclear definition of the problem statement, and a minimal introduction are notable shortcomings. Furthermore, the discussion section requires enhancement. While the research sample is commendable, the methodological tool appears rather simplistic, suggesting the potential for more sophisticated analyses. Thank you.