The topic of the research and paper is very interesting and highly relevant. The paper have many strenghts: good structure of paper, good writting style, extensive literature review concerning the problem of the research.

However, paper lacks some key element: there is no sufficient information on research methodology (aim, research question, information about data analysis procedures, overview of all emerged/ defined themes). It seems that rather extensive introduction and literature review is not followed with good and quality dissussion and presentation of data. In line with that the conclusions are not sufficiantly based upon results (there is no clear connection). This part of the paper should be more elaborated.
