Review of: "Selection of an engineering institution: Students’ perceptions of choice characteristics and suitability under the COVID-19 pandemic"

Akhilesh Kumar Singh

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

A good, efforts have been done by the authors, they briefly discuss about the effect of pandemic in engineering education. Few grammatical mistakes found and can be corrected. The paper should include some more examples and the effect of using these technologies.