

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Laser-Induced Fluorescence Endoscopy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Laser-Induced Fluorescence Endoscopy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C20203.

A system for detection of precancerous lesions and early stages of certain types of cancer, consisting of an excimer laser coupled to a dye laser and an endoscopic spectral-image analyzer that are used after the patient has been exposed to tumoriphilic photosensitizers.