

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Magnetic Resonance Cholangiopancreatography

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Magnetic Resonance Cholangiopancreatography. NCI Thesaurus. Code C113775.

A non-invasive procedure in which magnetic resonance imaging is used to visualize the intrahepatic and extrahepatic bile ducts, the pancreatic duct, and the surrounding parenchyma.