

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Renal Hormone Activity Alteration

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Renal Hormone Activity Alteration. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40616.

Any physiologic process that results in modulated activity of any of the renal hormones, including renin, erythropoietin, thrombopoietin and calcitriol. These processes are involved in regulation of blood pressure, production of red blood cells and platelets, and calcium homeostasis.