The approach you have chosen is very innovative and the mathematical and statistical apparatus is quite robust and novel. The research is written good, some of figure need to more clear. however, it needs more improvement in order to be accepted.

- 1- English language needs more improvement.
- 2- Abstract needs more information. the conclusions must included in abstract.
- 3- Introduction needs to be improved by reading and adding the following manuscript

There are no further notes on the research, and I recommend publishing it.
