

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Protein Phosphorylation Process

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Protein Phosphorylation Process. NCI Thesaurus. Code C18496.

Protein phosphorylation is one of various post-translational protein modifications that regulates protein function and enzymatic activity. The major phosphoryl acceptors in proteins are serine, threonine, and tyrosine.