Review of: "Clausewitz's Conceptual Relationship Among Tactics, Strategy, and the Conduct of War (Kriegführung)"

Vincenzo Scalia¹

1. University of Florence, Italy

A very interesting article, shedding light on a long-discussed issue and over long-used terms. Well-structured, discussed in-depth, as well as articulated. The author should, though, discuss an important aspect, which is relating the Clausewitzian tactic to nowadays' discussion: to what extent are strategy and tactics concepts to be used nowadays that drones and high-tech weapons prevail? Another aspect to cover is: could the concepts of strategy and tactics be used to discuss guerrilla wars?
