Thank you for your effort.

Indeed the subject is very interesting but I need a clarification on some points:

First: the title needs more clarification on the case study

Second: literature review is very good indeed but it needs to be organized from broad to narrow.

Third: selection of variables is not defined

Fourth: tests and methods of results should be clarified more.

Fifth: hypothesis formulation is not clear

Sixth: results must be compared in more details.

Seventh: applications not defined
