

Review of: "Why Corruption in Nigeria? Experts' Accounts on the Occurrences and Persistence"

Dian Anita NUSWANTARA¹

¹ Universitas Negeri Surabaya

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The major finding of the article is important for Nigerians since it may needed by the government as regulatory bodies as well as future research development. The abstract success to highlight the aims of the study. The qualitative approach is most suitable for this study and allow researchers to explore deeply. Previous research was explored but need to explicitly describe the gap identified. This will shape readers attention how this study contributes to the knowledge.