Multinomial Distribution

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Multinomial Distribution. NCI Thesaurus. Code C53210.

A discreet probability distribution, which is a generalization of the binomial distribution. This distribution models systems in which each trial results in one of a finite set of outcomes with a fixed probability.