

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Posterior Fossa Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Posterior Fossa Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116378.

A postoperative syndrome, usually presenting after midline posterior fossa tumor resection, that involves a variety of signs and symptoms including aphasia, mutism or speech disturbances, dysphagia, mobility problems, cranial nerve palsies and emotional instability.