

Review of: "What substances are adolescents vaping? Estimating nicotine-specific and marijuana-specific vaping from US national youth surveys"

Ravleen Nagi

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Its a good study few minor points needs to be addressed, Whether there were any psychosocial factors involved in continuation of habit of smoking/ vaping, and what type of intervention at individual or population level is more effective for smoking cessation as per literature, questionnaire used was pre validated or customized and to mention about validity / reliability of questionnaire, and also to mention about ethical clearance, informed consent from participants and sample size estimation method