

Review of: "[Mini-review] Impact on Oral Health of Smoking Cigarettes, Cigars or Hookahs"

Cinzia De Marco¹

¹ Fondazione IRCCS Istituto Nazionale dei Tumori di Milano

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Although short, the mini-review is comprehensive enough to send an effective message to smokers.

Precisely for this reason, and given the affiliations of the authors, I would emphasize more the following message accompanied by a bibliographical item:

Smoking and dental implants are absolutely incompatible, and for the good health of the patient and the teeth, it is therefore advisable to stop taking nicotine before and after implant surgery, since nicotine slows down and hinders healing and correct adhesion with bone cells of the teeth.