

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Infectious Rhinitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Infectious Rhinitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C78599.

An inflammatory process affecting the nasal mucosa, usually caused by viruses (e.g., rhinovirus, adenovirus, parainfluenza virus, and coronavirus). It is characterized by chills, headaches, mucopurulent nasal discharge, coughing, and facial pain.