

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Severe Chronic Active EBV Infection

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Severe Chronic Active EBV Infection. NCI Thesaurus. Code C162687.

A severe form of chronic Epstein-Barr virus infection characterized by continued intermittent fever, lymphadenopathy, thrombocytopenia, lymphocytopenia, neutropenia, polyclonal gammopathy, and greatly elevated titers for antibodies to EBV-related antigens.