

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Buformin Hydrochloride

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Buformin Hydrochloride. NCI Thesaurus. Code C95329.

The hydrochloride salt form of buformin, an agent belonging to the biguanide class of antidiabetics with antihyperglycemic activity. Buformin is not metabolized and is excreted in the urine. This agent has an elevated risk of causing lactic acidosis, and has been withdrawn from the market.