

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Autosomal Recessive Hypohidrotic Ectodermal Dysplasia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Autosomal Recessive Hypohidrotic Ectodermal Dysplasia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84580.

A rare autosomal recessive disorder characterized by developmental abnormalities of the skin, sweat glands, hair and nails. Patients have a reduced ability to sweat. Other signs and symptoms include hypotrichosis and teeth malformations.