

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cystic Fibrosis Transmembrane Conductance Regulator

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cystic Fibrosis Transmembrane Conductance Regulator. NCI Thesaurus. Code C111927.

Cystic fibrosis transmembrane conductance regulator (1480 aa, ~168 kDa) is encoded by the human CFT R gene. This protein is involved in chloride transport and the regulation of other ion transport pathways.