

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Benign Testicular Sertoli Cell Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Benign Testicular Sertoli Cell Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C6522.

A non-metastasizing sex cord-stromal tumor that arises from the testis.

Morphologically, it is characterized by the presence of Sertoli cells forming tubules.

Leydig cells are rare or absent.