

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Actin-Binding Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Actin-Binding Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16257.

A diverse group of proteins that bind to actin. These proteins direct a complex network of protein filaments that provide stability to the cellular infrastructure by supporting the dynamic motility of microfilaments, thereby enabling intracellular translocation and organelle transport.