Thank you for the opportunity to review this manuscript for publication consideration in Qeios. The authors explore a relevant and important public administration topic, Financial Autonomy: Panacea for Improved Service Delivery in Imo State Local Government System. The manuscript has a clear, reasonable research question, and tells a meaningful story. However, in the discussion, the author needs to discuss more and compare with the results of previous related studies to see the contribution of this study. Also add other practical implications in the discussion section.
