

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hypotonic-Hyporesponsive Episode

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hypotonic-Hyporesponsive Episode. NCI Thesaurus. Code C113670.

Acute onset of unresponsiveness or diminished level of consciousness, associated with loss of muscle tone and pallor or cyanosis, that occurs within 48 hours after childhood immunizations. It is primarily associated with pertussis-containing vaccines administered to children under two years of age.