

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Epidermolysis bullosa simplex, generalized intermediate

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Epidermolysis bullosa simplex, generalized intermediate. ORPHA:79399

Non-Dowling-Meara generalized epidermolysis bullosa simplex, formerly known as epidermolysis bullosa simplex, Köbner type (EBS-K) is a generalized basal subtype of epidermolysis bullosa simplex (EBS, see this term) characterized by non-herpetiform blisters and erosions arising in particular at sites of friction.