

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Sturge-Weber Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Sturge-Weber Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3391.

A congenital disorder characterized by the presence of a port-wine nevus birthmark on one or both sides of the face. Additional clinical manifestations may include seizures, leptomeningeal angiomas, glaucoma, progressive hemiparesis and cognitive deficits.