System Support Mapping

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. System Support Mapping. NCI Thesaurus. Code C148263.

A method by which trained facilitators guide participants to create a visual diagram of their self-management activities within their broader life context. MAP helps participants tangibly see complex self-management activities on paper, facilitating self-awareness and patient-driven engagement which makes them more actionable.