

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Factorial Study

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Factorial Study. NCI Thesaurus. Code C82638.

A type of clinical study in which two or more treatments are given alone and in combination, such that all possible combinations are represented across the treatment arms, and are compared in parallel against the study control group.