Review of: "Nutrition and work efficiency as a strategic variable necessary in a mining environment for high productivity: A case of Filabusi mining community"

Abeeb Omotoso

1 North-West University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The writer should use a regression at OLS to model the stated relationship.

Also, they need to operationalize the way the model their productivity. How did you measure the productivity in this research?

The introductory part is too lengthy and later lose the focus of the writeup

no need for all the subsections