

Review of: "Contribution of Indirect Taxes on Goods to Economic Growth of Pakistan (1972-2022)"

Tayyab Raza Fraz¹

¹ University of Karachi

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The authors have done a commendable job overall. Nevertheless, the literature review appears somewhat weak and could not benefit from a broader scope. Additionally, the methodology lacks sufficient motivation; for instance, why was the VECM model chose? it would be beneficial to include stationary tests for checking unit roots, among other considerations. Furthermore, the results and conclusion sections lack adequate comparison and discussions. I hope the authors will consider these suggestions for improvement. Thank you