

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cervical Mucinous Adenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cervical Mucinous Adenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C36095.

A usually well to moderately differentiated cervical adenocarcinoma characterized by the presence of malignant glandular cells that contain significant amount of intracytoplasmic mucin.