

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nasolacrimal Groove

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Nasolacrimal Groove. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34218.

A cleft located between the lateral nasal process and the adjacent maxillary process, which is seen during early embryonic face development, and which gives rise to the nasolacrimal duct.