

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Inverted Papilloma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Inverted Papilloma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3793.

An endophytic benign papillary epithelial neoplasm that results from the invagination and proliferation of epithelial cells in the underlying stroma. Representative examples are the inverted urothelial papilloma that arises from the urinary tract and inverted Schneiderian papilloma that arises from the nasal cavity or paranasal sinuses.