

Review of: "Corralling a Chimera: A Critical Review of the Term Social Infrastructure"

Hyunseok Hwang¹

¹ University of Houston

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Review on Controlling a Chimera: A Critical Review on the Term Social Infrastructure.

This is a well-written review paper about the term social infrastructure. The term, social infrastructure was not well defined in literature. This manuscript very thoroughly reviewed literature related to social infrastructure and provide five categories that can define the term social infrastructure.

I have only one major comment for the author(s).

1. It would be better to provide an explanation why the author(s) came up with the five categories. It may need some justifications why this paper narrowly focuses on the five categories.