

Review of: "Beyond Boundaries: Exploring Livability in Diverse CPTED-Enhanced Neighbourhoods of Bengaluru"

Md Ashik Ahmed¹

¹ North Carolina A&T State University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The author has diligently structured the manuscript, assigning it the title "Beyond Boundaries: Exploring Livability in Diverse CPTED-Enhanced Neighbourhoods of Bengaluru". The chosen title aligns appropriately with the current body of literature and discourse surrounding the subject matter discussed in the paper.

Nevertheless, it is imperative to examine various factors meticulously. The conciseness of the Abstract could be improved. The abstract could benefit from briefly mentioning some key findings or insights from the study, providing readers with a sense of the main takeaways.

There exists a necessity for the implementation of a more structured and organized arrangement of figures and tables. Moreover, there is a possibility to incorporate more advanced statistical methodologies. The introduction could be further refined in order to enhance its precision. Incorporating these factors would elevate the caliber of the manuscript to a commendable extent.