

Review of: "Strategies for Management and Long-term Surveillance of Pediatric Differentiated Thyroid Cancer: Balancing Efficacy and Quality of Life"

Mercedes Mitjavila<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Hospital Clínico San Carlos

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The strategy for differentiated thyroid cancer in children is reviewed. The review is well-written and easy to understand. There is a contradiction in the introduction where it is stated that thyroid cancer is common in children and then in the epidemiology section that it is a rare tumour.