

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Healthcare Information Technology Standards Panel

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Healthcare Information Technology Standards Panel. NCI Thesaurus. Code C82164.

A cooperative partnership between the public and private sectors for the purpose of achieving a widely accepted and useful set of standards specifically to enable and support widespread interoperability among healthcare software applications, as they will interact in a local, regional and national health information network for the United States.