

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Hypertrophic Scar

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Hypertrophic Scar. NCI Thesaurus. Code C26997.

A permanent mark on the skin caused by deposits of excessive amounts of collagen during wound healing. It is elevated and does not extend beyond the original boundaries of the wound; the elevation may stabilize or regress spontaneously.