

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Crown-Like Structures of the Breast

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Crown-Like Structures of the Breast. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116011.

An ultrastructural finding in breast adipose tissue that indicates macrophage infiltration to sites of adipocyte necrosis. This finding is associated with obesity and breast tissue inflammation and may be an indicator for increased risk of neoplastic breast disease.