

Review of: "Establishing a Multidisciplinary Human Resources Development Institute Under Public-Private Partnerships"

Fitri Nur Mahmudah¹

¹ Universitas Ahmad Dahlan

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. Abstract: You need to write in the abstract a specific and detailed description of the article you are writing, which consists of the purpose of the article/research objectives, the methodology used, and the research results.
2. Introduction: It needs to be written in more depth regarding the empirical evidence used in this research and what is relevant, so that you will be able to better understand the position of this research compared to previous research, especially on topics related to establishing a Multidisciplinary Human Resources Development Institute under Public-Private Partnership. From this, the author will be able to write more in depth regarding the urgency of the research.
3. Literature reviews need to be deepened with relevant theoretical studies so that the author is able to come up with a state-of-the-art research.
4. Research methods still need to be improved, such as who the participants are, data collection instruments, research procedures, and data analysis carried out.
5. The research results have not been seen according to the method used.
6. Discussion of research: It is better to discuss it in accordance with the research objectives so that it will be seen that each part of the question is answered through discussion of the research results, especially by using relevant studies.
7. Conclusion: Still not in depth according to the results of the research and discussions that have been carried out.
8. Bibliography: International studies need to be added.