

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Non-Cellular Component

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Non-Cellular Component. NCI Thesaurus. Code C125905.

A term that refers to the non-cellular component of the innate immune system which includes cytokines, chemokines, complements, and other mediators of inflammation, to the non-cellular component of blood (plasma), or the non-cellular component of body fluids and bronchoalveolar lavage fluid.