

Review of: "Radiological parameters after LLIF for adjacent-level disease treatment"

Vincenza Sciortino¹

¹ University of Palermo

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I really appreciate this brief work about the adjacent level disease. This is a contradictory topic, that need to be more explored. So, even if your study is really brief, with some descriptive statistics, I think that, because you have the possibility to do the follow-up with the patients underwent to this surgery, you will have the possibility to better investigate the topic.