

Review of: "Who Belongs to the Middle Class? Identifying Them Using Monthly Family Income"

Sudeshna Ghosh

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The abstract should underscore the scientific value addition of the paper.
2. The introduction should briefly place the study in a broad context and highlight why it is important. It should define the purpose of the work and its significance. So, the authors should highlight why this study is important.
3. How do you compare and contrast your research findings with other studies?
4. Please make sure your conclusions section underscores the scientific value added of your paper, and/or the applicability of your findings/results, as indicated previously. Basically, you should enhance your contributions, limitations, underscore the scientific value added of your paper, and/or the applicability of your findings/results, and future study in this section.

Hope the suggestions will be helpful in improving the manuscript.

Best Wishes