Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. English language revision needed. For example "In the first phase of the paper generated content from the Chat GPT on very ten popular topics in library and information science." - this statement is not properly written.
2. Give a reference for turnitin application.
3. The abstract can be added with future research scope.
4. Give the working model of the chatGPT - articles are available openly.
5. "It can be a valuable tool in promoting academic integrity by helping to identify potential cases of plagiarism and providing guidance on how to avoid it" - justify this statement.
